By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Southern Relief Committee has sent another $5000 to the yellow fever stricken cities. The total collection amounts to $28,000. General Agent Jones, of Louisville, Nashville and Great Southern Railroad, sent a letter informing the Committee that he would transport supplies free of charge, from Louisville to Memphis, on his road. Murdered by Their Mother.

By Telegraph to the News.

CINCINNATI, August 29.—A special dispatch states that Mary Dean, a widow, living near Hillsboro, Missouri, murdered her two children by cutting their throats, on Tuesday last. Upon being arrested and brought to Hillsboro, she said she was too poor to support them. She murdered the baby first. When she undertook to put the little five-year-old boy on the bed to kill him, he clung to her and begged piteously, saying, "Oh, mamma, don't kill me! Don't kill me!" Without heeding his cries she threw him on the bed, and, after cutting his throat, struck him on the head with a piece of iron, completing her work. She presents a woe-begone appearance, is possessed of little or no intelligence, and is supposed to be insane.

Foreign Intelligence.

PARIS, August 29.—Liberte announces het M. Leon Gambetta will soon marry Madamoiselle Ginchard, who who has a dowry of 18,000,000 francs (note.) This has been previously denied by Mr. Gambetta's friends.

Conference of New York Republicans.

By Telegraph to the News.

SARATOGA, August 29.—About one hundred Republicans were present in response to the Cornell circular. John J. Townsend, of New York, was chairman, and Chas. E. Smith, of the Albany Evening Journal, was secretary.

A letter was read from Senator Conkling, approving the conference. He asserts that the government of the country is passing absolutely into the hands of those who so lately sought to destroy it, not stopping until they had filled the land with woe and burdened it with the debt and taxes which now rest so heavily upon us. This is not wise for any section. Raids on the Treasury, vast in amount and without right or honesty, are mustering for the time when, a "solid South" dominating, the Democratic party, as it will and must, shall again rule the two Houses of Congress. Wild schemes of repudiation and financial chaos and revolution find encouragement on every hand, and in most of the States the Democratic party is being drawn into a whirlpool of fallacious, short-sighted theories. Equality before the law and the political rights and liberties which the recent amendments to the Constitution were ordained to establish are becoming only a mockery throughout the South, and free elections are not permitted in several of the States. In concluding, the Senator expresses the opinion that no man's wish deserves to be balanced against unity at a time like this.

Speeches were made favoring an early fall Convention, and resolutions were adopted declaring the necessity for a full State Convention of delegates elected in the usual way, placing vital Republican principles and success before everything else, and discountenancing whatever may tend to disturb its counsels.

The resolutions also declare that "Republican success in New York is supremely important to continued Republican ascendancy in the country, and to the honor and welfare of the nation. With a united South against us, the further triumph of our party and its principles in the land can only be assured through the enrollment of New York in the column of Republican States. No sincere and faithful Republican can be insensible to this momentous truth, and duly impressed with the obligations it imposes, we earnestly appeal to the Republicans of New York, dismissing all differences, to labor unitedly for a Republican victory."

Archbishop Purcell on Kearney

By Telegraph to the News

NEW YORK, August 29.—A special to the Herald from Cincinnati, says: Archbishop Purcell was called upon yesterday, and the alleged interview between him and Kearney shown him. After reading it carefully he laughed and uttered the words, "Ridiculous stuff. Kearney came here, and with him was his Secretary. I received them as I receive every one who wants to see me on business. Kearney's first words to me were, "I'm Dennis Kearney, and I heard you was going to eat me." I looked at him a moment and replied, "I do not think anybody would want to eat you very much." Then he spoke to me about the Catholic Telegraph having stated that he was an Orangeman. Of course, I was willing if any wrong had been done him by that journal to have it corrected, but I was not the person to be held accountable for it." In answer to the question what was the Archbishop's impression of Kearney, he said, "I think him a foul-mouthed black-guard, and the less notice that is taken of him the better off society will be. He is a fomenter of mischief, and can do the cause he professes to represent no good."

Critical Position of the Austrian Army.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, August 29. —A special to the Daily Telegraph from Vienna, says, all that is known there about General Szapary is that his position is critical. Disaster to him would threaten Philippovich also. The reinforcements go forward slowly. One division has been sent to Szapary without waiting for the arrival of its reserves.

VIENNA, August 29.—A further mobilization is imminent, whereby Philippovich corps will be raised to 170,000 or 180,000 men. The transportation of troops and war materihl over the Southern railway is so great that passenger and goods traffic has been suspended.

Nominated for Congress.

By Telegraph to the News.

GALVESTON, Aug. 29.—The Greenbackers of the Second Congressional District, have nominated H. F. O'Neill, of Cape Tibarono, and the outlet is through the valley of the Tupisa into the Gulf of San Miguel. The distance is forty miles, and one of the engineering obstacles encountered is a mountain which must be tunneled for seven miles, while the estimated cost of the canal is $115,000,000. Of course, the commercial advantages of such a canal, whenever built, will be immense, and there is more or less rivalry between Nicaragua, through which most of the various routes are located, and Columbia for its possession.

WESTERN CAROLINA.

Buncombe County--A Prosperous Section---Commissioner Polk's Campaign.

Special Correspondence of the News.

ASHEVILLE, Aug. 26, 1878.

Buncombe county was formed in 1791, from Burke and Rutherford counties, and derives its name from Col. Edward Buncombe, of Tyrrell county. He was Colonel of the fifth regiment raised by North Carolina for the Continental army. He was a native of the West India Islands. The population of the county in 1870 was 16,000, but it has greatly increased since that time, and is supposed now to be twenty thousand. It is one of the largest counties in the State, having an area of one thousand square miles. There are few counties in the State that have furnished so many illustrious men to adorn the history of the country, national and State. Amongst them our beloved Vance, Swain, Clingman, Merrimon, and Gen. Vance. The forum, bench and bar have all been ably represented by men who hailed from Buncombe. She has furnished two Governors to North Carolina, Swain and Vance, three U. S. Senators, several Congressmen and two Judges. The bar is ably represented, and one of its members would probably now be occupying one of the highest judicial positions in the gift of the people if his utter aversion to public life, and his positive injunction to his friends not to use his name in connection with the judgeship and his refusal to run if elected, had not prevented.

There are in the county fifty-five churches; twenty-three Methodist, twenty-one Baptist, four Episcopal, four Presbyterian, two Christian, and one Roman Catholic; sixty schools, forty-six grain mills, and forty-four saw mills run by water, and of steam, three saw and one grain, one iron foundry, one furniture factory, five tanneries, one wool factory, one carding machine, and one cotton factory running two hundred and ten spindles, built in 1875, capacity one hundred yards of cloth and one hundred pounds of yarn per day. The products of this factory, jeans, satinets, linseys and yarns, are first class goods.

The county abounds in minerals and sulphur springs; magnificent timbers, consisting of oak, pine, walnut, popular, white pine, hickory and chesnut; marble, granite, soapstone, sandstone and mill-stone; the surface of the country is mountainous, traversed by streams abounding in fish, and its valleys, and gorges, and hills are very fertile, producing large yields of corn, rye, tobacco, grass and fruits of all kinds, which have taken the first premium offered by pomologists, at the Centeunial, at the national exhibition last year at Baltimore, and at all other points where exhibited, by that enterprising fruit grower, Nat Atkinson.

ASHEVILLE THE COUNTY SEAT

has a hopeful future. With a population of twenty five hundred and rapidly increasing, with two railroads approaching completion, and two others projected, with telegraph communication with the outer world, with good mail facilities, with a climate unsurpassed, and last but not least, the character and enterprise of her hospitable people, she will in the near future step to the front, in population and wealth, and take rank among the first cities in North Carolina. She can now boast of having the finest court house in the State. It was built in 1876, at a cost of thirty-five thousand dollars; it is a three story brick building, and will compare favorably with similar buildings in cities of fifty thousand inhabitants.

THE OLD NEWTON ACADEMY,

established seventy-five years ago, at which were educated Governors Swain and Vance, the Merrimons, Ex-Governor Perry, of South Carolina, and many distinguished men of the South, owing to litigation, is in bad repair and unoccupied. As soon as the result of the litigation is reached, it will be re-fitted and again occupied as an academy.

Asheville furnishes three publications: The Citizen, edited by R. M. Furman and Jordan Stone; under the able management of these gentlemen the Citizen is doing a good work throughout the Southwest, having a large and increasing circulation. The friends of Mr. Stone, the founder of the News, than whom there is not a better newspaper man in the State, will be pleased to learn that he is doing well in Asheville. Mr. Furman, it will be remembered, was clerk of the State last term. His friends of the West will again offer his name for re election, and he will receive the unanimous vote of the West for that position.

Gen. Gorman, formerly of Raleigh, is editing the Pioneer, a Republican paper.

COL. POLK'S SPEECH.

He was introduced in very complimentary terms by Gen. Vance, and had for his audience a respectable number of farmers, a number of distinguished visitors and members of the bar, among whom I noticed Gen. Clingman, Col. D. M. Carter and Maj. H. A. Gilliam, of Raleigh, R. Y. McAden, and a number of Northern gentlemen who were prospecting for homes.

The Colonel spoke for two hours, and the earnest attention and frequent demonstrations of approval attested the warm appreciation of his audience.

The Latest Darien Canal Survey.

Ever since the rush Californiaward in the golden era of '49 there has been talk of a canal across the Isthmus of Darien. During the long intervening period of incubation which this vast project has required, no less than eight or ten different lines have been surveyed for the proposed line, under both American and foreign direction. Four or five of these surveys are of so nearly equal merit that an international commission is now proposed to decide upon which is the most eligible. Ferdinand de Lesseps—he of Suez canal fame—will probably be upon the commission, and possibly its president. The latest route surveyed is that by Lieut. Wyse, of the French navy, grandson of Lucien Bonaparte. He has spent something over a year, all told, upon his work, meeting the expense himself, and he is naturally prejudiced in favor of his own particular route, especially as he holds a charter from the Columbian government for the construction of the canal, besides various valuable concessions, in case his survey is ultimately selected by the international commission. The starting point on the Atlantic side of Lieut. Wyse's survey is at Alcanti,

Progress of the Scourge.

Baltimore Sun, 28th.

The accounts that continue to come to us reporting the condition of the scourged cities of the South, indicate the spread of the epidemic to other places, and a steady increase in the number of new cases, as well as in the death rate in the cities first attacked. The malignant character of the disease paralyzes effort in some places and cripples it in others. Physicians who thought themselves secure against the malady have been stricken. Members of that noble organization, the Howard Association, who have volunteered to nurse the sufferers, have themselves fallen victims to their humanity. Quite a number of Sisters of Charity have succumbed to the destroyer in the midst of their devoted ministrations. The cry is for more physicians, more nurses, more help. Wherever persons can take to flight they have done so, leaving almost everything behind them to the chance of being depredated upon by thieves, who are prowling about the doomed cities. Grenada has shrunk from a population of fully five thousand to less than seven hundred. The white population of Memphis has been reduced, it is reported, from thirty thousand to not more than three thousand, which, however, hardly seems possible, as the daily papers are still published, and record all events in their midst, though in half sheets. In Memphis the large majority of business houses are closed, and many of the employes fugitives.

Vicksburg is also now feeling the severity of the pestilence, and the quarantine regulations established at Jackson and Meridian intercept supplies. The Deputy Collector of Customs reports "twenty-three deaths on Monday, six hundred cases under treatment, and the plague spreading with fearful rapidity." He appeals to the government for aid, and asks for an immediate supply of rations. Prominent citizens, headed by the mayor, have appealed likewise to the Secretary of War for help for the destitute colored people, and the Governor of the State has been called upon to cause the quarantine regulations of the interior cities to be modified. At New Orleans the fever is still on the increase, nearly two hundred new cases having been reported there yesterday. The record is a fearful one, and until frost comes there is no hope of relief. What the humane ot other cities, therefore, can do should be done at once, and the assistance should be kept up from time to time until the scourge abates. It is no time to speculate about the causes of the epidemic. There is sickness and sorrow and suffering to alleviate, and bereaved families to succor. The sympathy that is illustrated by liberal giving and the sending forward of physicians and nurses was never more needed than now.

The Extent of London.

London covers nearly 700 square miles, It numbers more than 4,000,000 inhabitants. It comprises 1,000,000 inhabitants from every quarter of the globe. It contains more Roman Catholics than Rome itself; more Jews than Palestine; more Irish than Dublin; more Scotch than Edinburg; more Welsh than Cardiff; has a birth every five minutes and a death in every eight minutes, has seven accidents in every day in its 7,000 miles of streets; has 124 persons every day, and 45,000 annually, added to its population; has 117,000 habitual criminals on its police register, and has 38,-000 drunkards annually brought before the Magistrates.

BALLOONING.

Expecting to Cover the Continents in Twenty Days.

Philadelphia Record,

In producing men who are prepared to undertake the the accomplishment of unheard-of feats of enterprise and daring the American nation can fairly be said to claim the palm. Stanley penetrated the jungles of Africa and excelled Livingston, Boynton swam the straits of Dover, an American mariner and his wife crossed the ocean in a tiny shell, while Fowler, another American, has just succeeded in literally "walking" over the English channel. And now a daring aeronautical feat is to be attempted some time during the present year. Professor Samuel A. King, the well-known aeronaut, a Philadelphian by birth, proposes to cap the climax by doing his level best to start from New York on a balloon voyage which shall terminate on some portion of the European continent.

Several years ago a proposition was made to Professor King to undertake the task, and the sum of $10,000 was guaranteed by some wealthy New Yorkers to cover the necessary expense. For prudential reasons the aeronant at that time decided to decline the offer. Last winter, however, while making some experiments in balloons for the Howgate expedition he was successful in discovering a substance of such impenetrability that a balloon of a capacity of 100,000 feet would not lose more than 1 per cent. of gas in twenty-four hours, so that after a journey occupying twenty days 80,000 feet of gas would still remain. The importance of this discovery is recoguized when it is stated that an average balloon will lose 20 per cent. of gas in twenty-four hours. This new idea was communicated to the New Yorkers, who renewed their previous offer. Professor King at once accepted, and the construction of the balloon, which will occupy the whole of the ensuing winter and spring, will be at once commenced.

The balloon in which the intrepid aeronaut is to attempt to accomplish the greatest feat of his life, will, when completed, be the largest in the world. It will average 90 feet in diameter and 275 feet in circumference, with a capacity for holding between 300,000 and 400,000 feet of gas. The material employed will be Pongee silk of a special manufacture, coated with a substance known only to the Professor. The silk will be doubled throughout. Pure hydrogen gas will be used, and the cost of inflation alone is approximated at $5,000. The car which the aeronaut and his companions (if any) will occupy will be a combination of a boat and a basket, a wicker framework covered with a heavy rubber substance, which can easily be used as a boat in case of emergency.

"I shall positively start early in June," said the Professor last night. "I consider that the month in which thunder storms, which I do not wish to encounter, are the least frequent. The starting point will be either New York or Brooklyn. I propose to keep in the lower currents and to maintain a permanent altitude of 500 feet above the surface of the water. I shall entirely discard the old theory of sailing in currents from west to east at a height of three miles. When you reach that height the gas begins to lose by expansion. Then, when you begin to descend, ballast must be thrown out. You rise again; more gas is lost; another descent; a further throwing overboard of ballast, and so on until all your ballast is gone, and then you come down for good. Under my scheme I expect to be able to keep in the air for two months, if necessary, while there has never been a ballon which has kept detached from the earth for a longer period than twenty-four hours."

"What period of time do you anticipate the transatlantic voyage will occupy?"

"That is hard to say, but I expect to make at least twenty miles an hour. In addition to the ballast the balloon will carry a large, heavy rope, which will drag the water. This will have a tendency to keep us in the permanent altitude of which I have spoken. You see, I shall have to depend on the fair-weather winds at the surface of the earth or water, which, at certain seasons, are generally from West to East."

"Have you any fears as to the result of the adventure?

"Well, now, of course, it is hazardous, but we shall take great care in the construction of the balloon; and, with enough provisions on board, I am fairly confident that the feat will be accomplished with safety."

The only similar feat on record was that of the ill-fated Professor Donaldson, in 1873. The balloon on this occasion was inflated by Professor King, and was started from Brooklyn, several newspaper correspondents being fellow voyagers. It was Donaldson's first attempt at handling a balloon of such a size, and consequently, after going over about one hundred miles, he came down at East Canaan, Conn.

Whether Professor King will take any companions on his perilous voyage he leaves to the future to determine. That plenty of Americans have the necessary courage is proved by the number of letters he has already received from would-be voyagers, several of whom have been his companions on previous aerial trips.

The Fever at New Orleans.

New Orleans Democrat.

The indications are that the death rate has reached its highest point. The probabilities are that there will be from forty to fifty deaths per day until the beginning of the second week in September, when the death rate will gradually but rapidly decline. If we have an early winter we expect the epidemic to have entirely disappeared by the first of October.

The per centage of mortality, so large at the outset, will henceforth be greatly reduced. In all large cities there are always multitudes of poor people living in ill-ventilated tenements, surrounded by more or less filth, and in need of the commonest comforts of life—ignorant, superstitious, and, in too many cases, disposed to vicious habits of life.

It was these classes of the community that the present fever, like all previous ones, first attacked, and consequently the per centage of mortality was very great. But since the appearance of the disease our charitable institutions and foremost amongst them all, the Howard Association, have thoroughly organized. They have invaded the dens of the fever in every section of the city; they have furnished physicians, nurses, food and money to almost every destitute family, while the Board of Health has cleansed and ventilated, as far as possible, all the pest-holes that have been discovered. So thoroughly has this good work been done that the sick poor of New Orleans are now better provided with physicians, nurses, medicines and nourishment than they are in years when the city is free from epidemic diseases. Indeed, a great and noble work has been promptly inaugurated, and is being energetically carried forward. In consequence, the mortality among the poorer classes has decreased, and the apparent virulence of the disease has been abated. The amount of suffering and destitution in our midst has been greatly reduced, and the pestilence robbed of its greatest terrors. We entertain strong hopes that we are now at the worst of the disease, and that in the course of ten days it will display a marked decline and and finally entirely disappear by the end of September.

Nevertheless the necessity to contributions has not ceased, and all who have anything to give should give it now.

About Bullion.

Washington Post.

The total amount of standard silver dollars coined up to the passage of the silver bill up to the close of business on Saturday was twelve million seven hundred and eighteen thousand five hundred dollars. This amount weighs about three hundred and seventy-four and three fourths tons. There are now in circulation over a million and a half of these dollars, and this amount is steadily on the increase through the agency of National banks. It is found that the silver dollars sent to the banks are seldom returned to the Treasury as is the case with those sent to the subtreasuries and used in the payment of customs. While the banks are considered the best mediums for getting this coin into circulation, yet the Treasurer is hampered by the restrictious which the law places upon him. In sending these dollars to the banks the amount cannot exceed the difference between the securities of the bank and the internal revenue receipts credited to it. It is perceived that this leaves a very small margin and as it varies day by day, great difficulty is experienced in regulating the remittances to the banks. The Treasurer has already received orders for rwo millions of these coin, which he is filling as rapidly as possible If this immense amount of coin is to be placed in circulation, some change must be made in the present laws regulating the National banks.

Photography as an Aid to the Police.

New York World.

There is a special branch of the Paris police who are photographers in uniform, and a place is set aside at the station for a studio and dark closet. In cases of murder it is the duty of the police photographers to photograph the scene of the deed, and also to record by the assistance of the camera the position of the victim. Several instances of forgery upon notes and bonds, in which the original figures were erased and others written in their place, have been discovered by the use of the camera. In a photograph, ink marks which are invisible to the eye are frequently reproduced, while an erasure, let it be ever so carefully smoothed over, becomes apparent. In a word, it is next to impossible to make an alteration in the matter of writing or printing upon a paper surface without the photographer finding it out. Even upon the subject of style in handwriting, the camera gives a sharp criterion. By photographing a word or two, and enlarging the up and down strokes to very wide dimensions, the character of the writing is more eas ly studied than in its original form. This instrumentality is sometimes used by inquisitive police agents anxious to get at the history of a doubtful document.

What Democracy has Done.

Durham Tobacco Plant.

Orange county emerged from the late war burdened by a heavy public debt which proved a source of no little annoyance. But the government was and has ever remained in the hands of the Democratic party. And what is the result? The entire debt has been liquidated and the Commissioners have levied a tax of 25 cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property to defray the current expenses of the county government. This year the entire tax of State and county will only be 63 cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. And yet with this forcible argument before them showing the great economy of the Democratic party, there are those who are ready to follow the lead of new and strange gods.

Mr. Tourgee Announces Himself.

Greensboro Patriot,

At one o'clock last Saturday the Court House bell rang and Mr. Tourgee proceeded to the Court House and delivered a speech in which he announced himself a candidate for Congress, for which he had been a standing candidate for eight years. We did not hear the speech but understand that he sailed out on the hard money plank, and told the people there would be war (bosh) if the Democrats got control of the government. This is the same old stereotyped war talk that we have been listening to in every campaign in the South. As a scare it is played out.

Gone to Pennsylvania.

Greensboro Patriot.

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee, for many years a resident of this city, with her daughter, removed last week to Erie, Pennsylvania, where, it is currently reported, she contemplates making her future home. If the Judge should not be elected to Congress—of which he stands about as much chance as he does of being translated heavenward in the flesh—he will probably follow as soon as the votes are counted in November, unless he should conclude to abandon the canvass and start before that time.

A Seminary for Counterfeiters.

Washington Post.

A curious revelation as to the condition of prison discipline in the Knoxville, Tenn., jail was made in the confession of two counterfeiters, Walter Adcock and William Jones, who were arrested at Cleaveland, Tenn., while engaged in manufacturing counterfeit coin. They were both young men, eighteen years of age, and confessed that they had learned to counterfeit while serving a term for larceny in the Knoxville jail. This confession remarkable, as it may seem, did not surprise the secret service officers, who had for a long time suspected that large quantities of counterfeit coin had been put in circulation from this jail. Through the laxness of the discipline the materials are procured from the outside by the prisoners, and the old offenders initiate the young criminals in the mysteries of counterfeiting. Nearly all the tobacco and luxuries purchased by the inmates are obtained in exchange for this counterfeit coin. The detectives have no absolute proof that this business is carried on in other jails, yet they have very strong suspicions that such is the case. These developments will undoubtedly result in an investigation and change of officials in that particular prison, but there are others throughout the country equally negligent.

Serious Conflit in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TENN., August 24.

Lee L Ayres and Charles Strain, who were sent by Special Deputy Collector James M. Davis from Overton country to Collector William Woodcock for re-inforcements, have just arrived, and they give the following details of yesterday's fight with illicit distillers in that county:

The revenue party was composed of Deputy Collector Davis in charge, Robert Brown, Robert Rawles, C. E. Tippin. J. M. Phillips, Felix Young, Press Smith, Milt Howe, C. W. Strain, United States Commissioner S. D. Mather, Spear and ourselves. We had just dismounted at the house of James Park, on Spring Creek, Overson county, to rest for the night. Commissioner Mather and myself were standing outside talking about Peek's age, which is 102 years. Some of the men had gone into the house, while Davis and Phillips went into a garden. At this moment a single shot came from an opposite hill 100 yards away.

THE FIGHT OPENS.

A bullet struck Phillips in the left side, when he cried out in great pain, "Oh, Lord," and then came a responsive echo from the "Wildcatmen."

"Oh, yes, God damn you," and with that between twenty or thirty of them showed themselves, and regular firing was commenced. lasting forty-five minutes. For a time it was very rapid. The "Wildcat" boys came to within fifty or seventy-five feet of us, hugging close to trees. It was seen that Campbell Morgan, who was wounded in a fight last spring, was in the lead. I took aim at him, and, as the smoke cleared away, I saw him stagger backward.

Toothache.

I want to say something in regard to using fine salt as a toothache cure. By using it every night and morning, after a meal, it will not only cure the toothache, but harden the gums and sweeten the breath. I used to be troubled much with the toothache, but not since using the above. I take a quarter of a teaspoonful and a little tepid water and rinse my mouth thoroughly. It will make a decayed tooth jump a little at first; but it will gradually quit it—at least, it did so in my case. A recipe for cheap but good tooth-powder which I have tried: Cut a slice of bread into squares, burn in the fire until it becomes charcoal, then pound and sift through a fine muslin, and it is ready for use.—Daisy White.

Dreadful Case of Intimidation,

Pittsburg Telegraph, Rep.

Why the 2,867 Republicans of Phillips county, Arkansas, should be intimidated by the 981 Democrats so thoroughly that each and every Republican in the county, should be afraid to run for a county office, as it is stated in a recent letter from Washington is the case, is one of those strange things that no fellow can fully comprehend, unless each separate Arkansas Democrat has seven heads and ten horns. It seems to us at this distance that three stalwart Arkansas Republicans ought to be able to intimidate one Arkansas Democrat, unless he is iron-clad and turreted.

A La Beecher.

St. Louis is now busy with a Beecher case. The clerical individual involved is Logan D. Dameron, the pious editor of the Christian Advocate of that city, and his alleged victim, now dead, was a pretty girl of seventeen summers. She told his name as a death-confession, and the evidence is strong against Brother Dameron. His reply to the charge is a flat denial, coupled with the claim that the girl was out of her mind at the time. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the dead girl, is a second cousin of Edgar Allan Poe.

Bankrupts.

By Telegraph to the News.

A. and S. Nusboune, whisky dealers in Peoria, Ill., have filed a petition in bankruptcy. Debts unsecured, $130,-000; no assets.

Walter L. Pease, of Elgin, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. Debts unsecured, $48,000; bills discounted, $299,-000; assets, $30,000.

Big Freshet.

Wilmington Review.

There has lately been one of the largest freshets known in Sampson county, and the destruction to crops and cattle is said to be very great. The drought kil ed the high land crops, and the freshet has swept away most of the corn in the low lands. It will be difficult to estimate the loss caused by the freshet, and the farmers are of the opinion that not one third of a crop will be made in Sampson this year.

A Reminiscence and Contrast.

Ten years ago, this month, the largest Democratic Convention that ever assembled in the State of North Carolina met in the City of Raleigh. No one who was present is likely to forget that grand and enthusiastic out-pouring of the patriotic masses. It was the first time that the white people of our good old Commonwealth had met in council since the inauguration of the "Reconstructed" Radical State government, when Judge Reade, then of the Supreme Court, made a political harangue in Capitol square, and expressed his joy at "getting home." Graham was here and uttered words of statesmanship and of stirring invocation. Biggs was present and spoke feelingly on the issues of the day. Cowan lifted that clarion and eloquent voice of his, which never gave an uncertain sound in any hour of duty or of danger. They are all gone to their rest, but they have left behind them glorious examples of devotion to State and Country and lofty memorials of wisdom and of patriotism.

The temporary presiding officer of that Convention was the gallant gentleman whom the Democracy of this Congressional District have just put forward, for the third time, as their standard-bearer. On assuming the duties of the chair, the Hon. JOSEPH J. DAVIS said "that he felt that no old recollections would be allowed to mar the general harmony." "Remembering," said he, "that, through our agency, the government must be restored to its ancient standard of economy and purity, I appeal to this Convention, by all they hold dear, by every high and sacred consideration, to unite in purpose and in action."

The first speaker was the Hon. JOSIAH TURNER. He said "that he could not refrain from expressing his gratification that the white people of North Carolina were aroused." He asserted that "no people, for five hundred years, had labored under so infamous a despotism, but that it was as much their fault as that of their oppressors, in that they had been guilty of such tame and abject submission." He dissected the character and qualifications of the State Radical officials and declared "that we might as well expect crime to be rewarded in the hereafter as to suppose that such a set of creatures could maintain ascendancy in North Carolina!"

Such is the reminiscence, as we gather it from the published proceedings of the Convention. And now for the contrast:

We think that no one will deny that, in many respects, the times are as exigent as in 1868. The Radical party have been driven from power in the State, it is true, after a series of greater iniquities than ever disgraced the annals of any country, but they are engaged in a desperate struggle to regain their lost ascendancy. The "snake is scotched, not killed." Despairing of success in an open field, they are resorting to the strategy of dividing our forces, that they may conquer in detail. By ingenious insinuation and skilful tactics they would produce disaffection in the Democratic ranks. By specious promises and hypocritical encouragement to soured and disappointed individuals, they are cajoling them with the idea of "bad treatment" at the hands of former friends and inviting them to break the bounds of party organization and enter the field as independent candidates. And the man who, in the glorious Convention of 1868, uttered such burning words of denunciation of Radicalism, in all its shapes, forms and phases, is one of the first to be caught in the insidious trap,—one of the first victims of the cunning wiles of the men whom he anathematized in the past with all the bitterness of his aggressive and positive nature. The man who, one decade ago and repeatedly since, invoked the co-operation of white men to save the State, is to-day lustily imploring the negro vote to help him "purify" (God save the mark!) the party which he held up as the only salvation of Anglo-Saxon liberty and constitutional government. The man who complained of the "despotism" of the government, and challenged the history of five hundred years for a parallel, has fallen into the embraces of a party whose aims and tendencies are all in the direction of centralized and oligarchic power. The man who "rung the changes" on rings and monopolies, until the iteration grew into a joke and actually subjected him to the charge of monomania on the subject, is striving for the support, if not for an actual nomination at the hands, of the party of corruption and of corporations, of rings and of robberies.

We propose to deal with Mr. Turner in a spirit of entire fairness. We have said, heretofore, that he rendered important services to the State and the Democratic party, at a critical period in its history. Admitting, for the sake of argument, but for that only, that he has not had "reward" commensurate with former services, his present course presents him in even a more discreditable light. The man who claims to have done great services for a party, to whose principles he professes to have been conscientiously attached, and who afterwards deserts that party because his personal services were not rewarded by money or place, affords the strongest evidence that principle has no abiding place with him, but that self—GREEDY, PALTRY SELF,—is everything and all in all! The same spirit would have led many a soldier of the South, in the late war, who thought that his services deserved promotion but failed to command it, into the ranks of the enemy. The very statement of Mr. Turner's case, as thus put by himself or any of his friends, is most damning and should open the eyes of the people to the utter hollowness of his pretensions.

Meanwhile, Joseph J. Davis stands where he did in 1868, as true as the pole-star to principle and duty. He still holds up the Democratic party as the only agency through which economy and purity can be restored to the government, and he still appeals to the people to merge all old recollections and differences for the accomplishment of these ends.

The Democratic voters of this District, who are Democrats in principle and believe that the triumph of their party will be the triumph of good government, (and we will not question their sincerity, by supposing that they are not all such and do not all so believe,) will not hesitate as to their interests and duty, when they study the contrast we have presented,—when they —"Look on this picture and then on this!"

Unholy Alliances, Again.

The Chicago Tribune, a violent Radical journal, alluding to the Southern outlook, says that "wherever the Republicans are wise, they will unite with the Nationals." As there is not one principle in common between the Nationals and Radicals, this simply means a "pooling of issues" that the latter may accomplish by indirection what they are impotent to accomplish squarely. The same paper adds: "The National is a much darker animal in the South than he is in the North," and says, yet again: "The policy we have here advocated is the legitimate effect of the abolition of the color line long ago indicated by the Tribune." All of which means that the Radical programme for keeping up negro solidification in the South, at the same time that it would break up or prevent white solidity, is to merge, or appear to merge, with Nationalism, wherever it can be found in the South. In other words, for the sake of beating the Democracy, let the Radicals fight under the banner of the Nationals,—although that banner emblazons no one article of faith which they have not outraged! How do "Nationalized Democrats" like the suggestion and the proffered association? Doubtless they suit Mr. Cobb, "Windy Billy," Tourgee, and, from their present standpoint, Messrs. Bledsoe and Turner, as well but do they not sit rather heavily on the stomachs of such men as Col. Winston, Mr. Crawford, and others?

John Sherman's Speech.

The speech of Secretary Sherman delivered at Toledo, Ohio, on Tuesday, derives its chief claim to attention from the official position of its author. The New York Times, which will not be suspected of want of harmony with the views of Mr Sherman on financial questions, as illustrated in his administration of the Treasury Department and his recommendations to Congress, disposes of the speech very summarily, when it says:

"A discussion of the financial question by the Secretary of the Treasury should be clear, strong, and in a certain sense conclusive. The drawback to Mr. Sherman's speech, or so much of it that relates to finance, is that it lacks these conditions. As an expression of his faith in the feasibility of resumption, and the state and resources of the Treasury with reference to that measure, it is sufficiently positive; though his assurances upon this branch of the subject would probably command greater respect if they evinced a more critical appreciation of its difficulties and of the attendant circumstances that are requisite for its success. On other points,—notably the silver coinage and the continued circulation of greenbacks—his remarks are not calculated to impress intelligent readers favorably, or to inspire them with a reverence for the qualifications exacted from he head of the financial department of the Government."

This speech of Mr. Sherman was intended to break the force of Senator Thurman's recent great effort, which has given, with a few local exceptions, such unmeasured satisfaction to the great mass of the people. So far as any efficacy in that regard is concerned, it might just as well have been made six months ago, as it presents no ideas and broaches no theories that were not known to be entertained by the speaker,—ideas and theories, indeed, which created the necessity for the very speech to which it affects to reply.

Such of the speech as was not devoted to the consideration of financial questions was given to the methods by which Louisiana and Florida were carried for Hayes. Of all men John Sherman is the last who should call public attention to that subject. The conduct of the "visiting statesmen," of whom he was chief, was the most scandalous thing in the whole transaction, and he is at this moment arraigned before a Committee of Congress for his alleged complicity in the stupendous crime. Charging intimidation and murder upon the Democratic party in those States, he plays the part of the rogue who cries "Stop thief!" to conceal his own guilt and divert pursuit. Protesting that other States, like Mississippi and Alabama, were carried by fraud, he seems to have adopted the advice given by Sir Toby Belch to Sir Andrew Ague-cheek: "Put in as many lies as will lie on thy sheet of paper, altho' the sheet were big enough for the bed of Ware in England." As a specimen of cool effrontery, in view of the fact that he is at present on trial, as it were, before a high Court of Inquest, and in view of the additional fact that it is a partizan harangue by one of the Ministers of "Civil Service Reform," this speech of John Sherman's is destined to bear the palm.

The Potter Committee will meet at Washington in October to examine some more witnesses, and will then adjourn until the meeting of Congress in December. The work of the committee last week was particularly unpleasant for the "grand old Republican party," for it piled up the evidence of dirty frauds perpetrated by that organization in 1876 in such a way that the Republicans dare not attempt a defence any longer. They only get deeper in the mire. What honest meaning, for instance, can be placed on the following document issued to the supervisors of parishes in Louisanna?

"HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN PARTY OF LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15, 1876.—R. B. EDGEWORTH, SR., Supervisor of Registration, Parish of Plaquemines, Louisiana—Dear Sir: It is well known to this committee from examination of the census of 1875 that the Republican vote in your parish is 3,000, and the Republican majority is 2,200. You are expected to register and vote the full strength of the Republican party in your parish. Your recognition by the next Administration will depend upon your doing your full duty in the premises, and you will not be held to have done your full duty unless the Republican registration in your parish reaches 3,000 and the Republican vote is at least 3 000. All local candidates and committees are directed to aid you to the utmost in obtaining this result, and every facility is and will be afforded, but you must obtain the results called for herein without fail. Once obtained, your recognition will be ample and generous.

Yours,
W. J. M. A. JEWETT, Sect'y."

We publish, on our first page, an interesting sketch of the Khedive of Egypt, who, though considered, a few years since, the wealthiest Potentate in the world, has become bankrupt. His army, which had been raised by American officers to a high degree of efficiency, has been almost entirely disbanded. Gen. Colston, of Wilmington, who won high distinction in his service, is expected home very shortly.

Ben Butler is nothing if not intensely sensational. The "bloody shirt" was floated triumphantly by him until the old thing went to tatters. Now he has got up another "intimidation." Ben declares that men who support him for Governor are threatened that they cannot have discounts at the banks—which is, of course, "all in his eye," and the cock-eye at that.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!
A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs. Person's father. Mrs. Person lives at Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whisky, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. —— wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians! We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

LOUISBURG, N. C., May 22, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son. He was troubled with twenty-seven running sores, some of them quite large, and of a Scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your Remedy he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite well and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,
Very Respectfully,
T. J. STOKES.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. S. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H. Heartt, Druggists, Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to

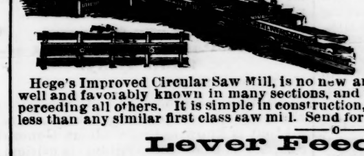
CIRCULAR SAW MILL. LEVER FEED CUTTER.



Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new and untried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any similar first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29.

For South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather, occasional rain; variable winds, mostly southerly, and stationary or higher pressure.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Cotton picking begins next week.

——Give more light is the cry these inky nights.

——No cases were tried in the Mayor's Court yesterday.

——The heavy rains have given the streets a good cleansing

——Nobby vehicles are beginning to appear on the streets.

——Yesterday was probably the most uneventful day in the history of Raleigh.

——A letter addressed to W. B. Smith, M. M. S. C. R. R., Charleston, S. C., is held for postage.

——The Panther Branch farmers assert that the crops there are superior to those in any other section of the county.

——Preparations for a fine fall trade continue to be made by the merchants, who are putting their houses in order.

——The men Harris and Cohen put up the $300 bail required yesterday, and were released from custody.

The Raleigh Baptist Female Seminary begins its Fall Term September 10th.

——Aid the yellow fever sufferer's, contribute your mite. You won't miss a few pennies,

——The weather has all the fickleness of April, and brightens or lowers without warning.

——The accumulated sand was removed yesterday from under the wooden gutter in front of the postoffice.

——Good melons are becoming rather scarce, while scuppernong grapes are coming in to fill the vacancy.

The departments at the capitol failed to furnish a solitary item yesterday, and an air of general dullness prevailed.

——Wake Forest College opens on Monday. Four young men will attend from this city and about fifty from the county.

——U. S. Commissioner Purnell, yesterday bound a liquor dealer to appear at next Circuit Court, on a charge of selling without license in 1877.

——Wanderers to the coast and the mountains are returning slowly. Many will remain until driven home by cold weather.

——The prospects of a large attendance at the schools are considered very favorable by the principals of these institutions in all parts of the State.

——The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, and $5,000 insurance on the late Capt. Isaac B. Grainger, of Wilmington.

——And now it is said that the post office authorities will certainly occupy the new building by October 1st, as by that time the elegant new furniture will arrive.

——A scene charmingly rural may be seen now in the capitol square. The haymakers are there busy, while the heavy laden wagons pass out with the sweet scented grasses piled high.

——Everybody is expectantly looking to the beginning of the autumn, which it is hoped will bring the business revival so long prophesied. The hopes of this now rest on a foundation almost sure.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners assembles on Monday, to transact the usual monthly business.

Board of Magistrates.

The Justices of the Peace of the county assemble on Monday. The Board will, among other things, appoint the poll-holders for the November Congressional election.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m., 75° 2 p. m., 83°
10 " 80° 6 " 80°

The South Land.

The first number of a paper with this name appears this week. It is published weekly by Dawson & Co., of Charlotte, and is issued in the interest of the farmers and miners of the State.

The Orphans Friend.

The Oxford Orphans Friend with the last issue closed its career as a journal. Mr. J. H. Mills, who has made the paper so pleasant a guest in many a home, feels sad at being compelled to give up its publication.

An Injured Editor.

The friends of that estimable gentleman, R. B. Creecy, Esq., the able editor of the Elizabeth City Economist, will regret to hear that while bathing in the surf at Nag's Head beach, he suffered a fracture of the leg. The injury, though painful, will not be dangerous, and he will soon be himself again.

The Last Day.

To-morrow is the last day on which the national bankrupt act remains in force. On that date a number of State insolvent of laws that were regarded as obsolete and are in part unknown, even to lawyers, will spring again into life, they never having been formally abrogated, but only superseded, by the Federal law.

Personals.

Mr. Duncan Cameron, of Hillboro, is in the city.

The health of J. C. R. Little, Esq., who has been severely ill, has, happily, so much improved as to permit his appearing on the street.

Col. B. B Lewis, of Macon, Ga, is on a visit to his relatives and friends in this State. He is at the residence of his brother, R. G. Lewis, Esq.

Mr. J. W. Ramsey, one of the most popular and successful salesmen that travels in North Carolina, is at the Yarborough, representing Messrs. Wm. A. Tottle & Co. Merchants will do well to look out for him.

Sunday School Pic Nic.

The Baptists have a pic nic and barbecue, at Mt. Moriah, near Auburn, today. There will be a number of persons from this city present, some of whom will speak. Rev. Dr. Pritchard will address the assemblage. A large crowd is expected.

Appointed Janitor.

Maj. John McDonald has been appointed Janitor of the new postoffice. He has been connected with the work almost from its commencement, and his appointment will give general satisfaction.

A Convenience.

It is said the county is negotiating for the purchase of the old postoffice building, to be removed in the rear of the court house. There it will be used as a room for juries, and also for the reception of female witnesses before the courts. For these there is now no place provided. The building, if so placed, will be handsomely fitted up, to match the court house.

His View of the Case.

Judge A. S. Seymour, it is understood, holds that the two extra terms of Wake county Superior court, held on the first Monday in January and the fourth Monday of June, are not repealed by the act laying off the State into nine Judicial Districts, and that he proposes to hold the January Term. It is said some members of the bar hold the same opinion.

The Oleander

Given by Mr. Jacob Rosenbaum, to be sold for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, on Saturday, at 11 a. m., is a particularly fine one. It is of the variety known as the double pink, has bloomed twice, and is budding the third time. Each bidder will pay the amount of his bid in cash; the highest will get this valuable plant. Let there be a lively competition at the time of sale. The plant is at Mr. McMackin's office

Military Gossip.

The two companies of the Second Regiment at Fayetteville, have made some addition to their uniform, and are in every way preparing to make a a fine appearance at the encampment. The marksmen of these commands are practicing steadily, and will be found as usual in the foremost places at the fair.

The organization of the infantry company at Durham is now complete and its officers will be commissioned next week.

The Post Office Sewer.

Two Raleigh men put in bids for the terra cotta drain from the post office to Rocky Branch. The estimates were for the complete work excavating, furnishing and laying the 18 inch pipe, and replacing the earth. These parties were underbid by Hayward and Hutchison, of Washington City, who agree to do all the above for the total sum of $6,-879.60. It is said here that the work cannot be done at that price. Work will soon be begun on the trench.

Wake Superior Court.

Court met at 10 a. m. yesterday, His Honor Judge Seymour presiding. The following cases were tried:

Scott vs. Green; ordered that the cause be reinstated on the civil issue trial docket, and that execution be recalled upon defendant's filing bond.

St. Augustine Normal School vs. Carmer, wife, et als., also, vs. Blackwell and wife, Whittaker and wife, et als.; W. H. Battle, Esq., appointed, was made a party to the cause.

Mason vs. Hunnicutt; dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Fowle & Vick vs. Kerchner et als.; trial resumed from Wednesday. Pending the taking of testimony, Court adjourned until 9:30 a. m. to-day.

The Mite Chest.

Mr. A. P. Bryan, the genial prince of expressmen, has established in a prominent place upon the counter of his office, a mite chest, in which kind hearted souls may drop a mite for the relief of those poor sufferers, who, fever stricken, call piteously for aid. The sufferers by yellow fever in the lovely Southland send up a cry to which no ear should be deaf. Has Raleigh, beautiful, happy, prosperous, done her share of relief for these afflicted ones? Altogether there has been sent from this point $280. A generous spirit of rivalry between cities of the State would be commendable. Every means of increasing the contributions from this city should be made use of. Mr. Bryan states that yesterday the sum of $10 was deposited in the mite chest, and this amount should be trebled daily. Neglect not the appeals of the sufferers.

Relief for Yellow Fever Sufferers.

RALEIGH, Aug. 29.

H. H. Roberts, Manager of Calleopian Minstrel:

DEAR SIR:—We respectfully ask your excellent Amateur Association to give a representation for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers.

Very respectfully,
B. C. MANLY,
JOHN C BLAKE,
C. DEWEY,
R. S. TUCKER,
J. G. WILLIAMS,
J. C. SCARBORO,
THO. S. KENAN,
R. C. BADGER,
E. R. STAMPS,
R. H. BRADLY,
and many others.

RALEIGH, Aug. 29.

Mayor B. C. Manly, Messrs. John C. Blake, C. Dewey, and others.

GENTLEMEN:—It will be gratifying to us to assist in raising funds to return the suffering people in the plague-stricken districts, and will name a day as early as possible when we will give an entertainment, the proceeds of which will be turned over to a committee of citizens to be forwarded to the proper authorities.

Respectfully,
H. H. ROBERTS.

The above correspondence explains itself and this the first act of the newly organized Amateur Association deserves the hearty support of our entire community, and we doubt not but that they will have a rousing house. Let every citizen procure a ticket and aid in this noble effort to assist the suffering communities of the South West.

The Jewish New Year.

During the latter part of nex month the Jews throughout the world will inaugurate the festival of the New Year called in Hebrew "Hosh Hashanah." It occurs in Tisbri, which is the first month of the civil year and the seventh month of the Jewish ecclesiastical year. By tradition the world was created on this day:" This day is also termed "Yom Hosruhue"—"a day of blowing the trumpets." On the third day the fast for the death of Gedaliah, who while, Governor of Judea, was assassinated, is observed. Gedaliah was the son Ahikim, whom Nebuchadnezzar had appointed Governor of the Israelites after the destruction of the Temple by the Babylonian monarch.

The first ten days of Tishri are designated "Ahasares Yem Hatshuva," or the ten penitential days; and the Sabbath between the first and tenth day (Yom Kippur) is called Sabbath Tshuva.

On the sixth day one of the most important holidays, termed "Yom Kippur'—day of attonement—is observed by both the orthodox and reformed Jews in an impressive manner. At sundown on the evening previous the great fast commences, which continues until after sundown on the following day. The Jews abstain from all manner of food and not even a drop of water must be touched, so strict is the observance. The service in the synagogue are of the most impressive character. The day is set apart for the repentance of sins, a solemn fast is decreed, and forgiveness is held out to all who are earnest in their repentance and contrition.

Light Needed.

Those unfortunate pedestrians, who have to leave the lights of Fayetteville street behind them, find nothing beyond, these nights, save the blackness of darkness. Why is it that the lamps cannot be regularly and properly attended to, oil supplied, and everything managed properly? Somebody is to blame. Now, who is it? Don't all speak at once. Dwellers in the city, on side streets, certainly have some rights the Light Committee is bound to respect. If this committee does not attend to its duties with some conscientiousness, it will receive the name of the "Dark Committee." Like the Heathen Chinee, it has "ways that are dark." But, jesting aside, this state of affairs must be remedied. Gropers in the dark, who almost lose their homes at night, will echo this sentiment, surely. The clearest-headed, sharpest-eyed of them all, finds every energy taxed to the utmost to find his habitation. Cannot repeated mention of these facts produce some good results. Is there no balm in Gilead?

Housekeepers

Will profit by a perusal of the local advertisement of Mr. J. P. Pritchard, Jr., appearing to-day. He keeps fowls and country produce of all kinds, which he disposes of at very cheap rates.

A Tried Remedy for Biliousness

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pill, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the bitters upon the great biliary gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, turned appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint, are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter and from all classes of society.

AFTER the birth of my babe, one of my limbs became fearfully swollen. Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia, after all the K. Brown remedies failed, effected a rapid cure.

JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better, purer or more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit to use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article through the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is sold on its credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
